LENA: I live in the city centre. My office is very near my flat, so I walk to work. It only takes five minutes. I can walk to the shops too. But there isn't a supermarket in the city centre, so I take the subway there. It's very convenient. I never use the bus. It's a little cheaper, but it's so slow! When I travel to other towns and cities, I use the train. I don't have a car and I don't like buses and coaches.

PAUL: I live in a town, about fifteen miles from the city. My work is about ten miles from my home. I go to work on my scooter. It's cheap and it's easy to park. But it's sometimes cold and wet, and that's not nice. I use my scooter to go to the shops and the supermarket and to visit friends. But for a night out, I take the train. Then I can enjoy some drinks. I never drink and ride! I don't have a car, but when I travel to other parts of the country, I often hire one. It's more convenient than taking the train or a coach.

HOLLY: My college is about two miles from my house, so I go there by bike. I cycle to bars too, and I use my bike when I visit friends. But when I go to the supermarket, I take the bus. Then I don't have to carry lots of heavy bags a long way. When I visit friends in other towns and cities, I take the bus or a coach. It's slow, but it's really cheap, and I don't have much money. I never drive a car. I can't drive! And I never take taxis. They are too expensive for me.
