Dialogue 1

SALLY: Would you like to play tennis on Saturday, John?

JOHN: I'm a little busy on Saturday. What time?

SALLY: In the morning. How about ten o'clock?

JOHN: Sorry, I'm not free in the morning. How about the afternoon, at about 4 o'clock?

SALLY: Sorry, I'm afraid I can't play then.

JOHN: That's a shame. Maybe another time.

SALLY: Yes, sure.

Dialogue 2

ALEX: Paula, we're going to a restaurant on Friday. Would you like to come with us?

PAULA: Where are you going, Alex?

ALEX: To the Italian restaurant on High Street.

PAULA: I like that place. What time are you going there? After work? At half-past five?

ALEX: No. That's too early to eat. We're going home first and we're meeting at seven o'clock.

PAULA: Mm, that's not good for me. I don't live near work.

ALEX: Well, do you want to come to my house after work? We can have a drink there.

PAULA: Thanks, Alex. That sounds good.

Dialogue 3

LINDA: Jeff, do you want to see Romeo and Juliet at the theatre next week?

JEFF: Okay. I know you love that play.

LINDA: Thanks, Jeff! Which day is best for you? Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday?

JEFF: What time does it start?

LINDA: Half-past seven.

JEFF: I can't go on Tuesday. I have to stay late that day. And I have football on Thursday.

LINDA: Wednesday then?

JEFF: Yes, that's fine.

LINDA: Great!

Dialogue 4

LIAM: A country band is playing at The Groove next week. Shall we go?

AVA: Which band is playing?

LIAM: Sheep and Cows.

AVA: Oh, they are good! When are they playing?

LIAM: They're playing on two nights, Thursday and Friday.

AVA: I can't go on Thursday. I have yoga. But I'm free on Friday.

LIAM: Friday is good for me too.

AVA: What time do they start?

LIAM: Nine o'clock. But we can meet for drinks first.

AVA: Yes, let's do that. But let's not meet at The Groove. Let's go to the bar in the park.

LIAM: Good idea. Shall we meet there at eight?

AVA: Yes, that'd be great.
